

Want to Make a Difference in Your Community?

The

Joint Accessibility Advisory Committee

Of The Municipality of the County of Kings, including the Villages* is seeking 1 Citizen who,

- lives with a disability or works with persons with disabilities, and
- resides in the Municipality of the County of Kings

The Joint Accessibility Advisory Committee provides advice to Municipal Council and Village Commissions on identifying, preventing and eliminating barriers to people with disabilities in municipal programs, services, initiatives and facilities. The Committee plays a pivotal role in helping the Municipality and the Villages become accessible communities that comply with Nova Scotia's Accessibility Act (2017).

Meetings are held monthly in the evening on the 2nd Wednesday of the month at the Municipal Complex in Coldbrook, with additional special meetings called as required.

Council-appointed citizen members receive an honorarium, paid quarterly based on attendance.

If you are interested in being considered, please apply by completing the application form at www.countyofkings.ca/citizenappointments and uploading a cover letter and résumé.

Applications will be accepted until the position is filled.

Applications can also be e-mailed to nominatingcommittee@countyofkings.ca
