

The seal of the County of Kings, Nova Scotia, is a large, stylized crest. At the top, a purple banner with yellow text reads "COUNTY OF KINGS". Below this is a shield with a blue border. Inside the shield, there is a central emblem featuring a crown with red and yellow details, a scepter, and a shield with a red and white design. The shield is set against a background of green trees and a blue sky. At the bottom of the shield, a purple banner with yellow text reads "NOVA SCOTIA".

COUNTY OF KINGS

The Municipality of Kings County
Official Proclamation for July 16th - July 26th, 2019
Pride Week

Proclamation

Whereas individuals of the Two-Spirit, Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender, Queer, Questioning, Intersex and Asexual communities have experienced discrimination based on sexual orientation and preferences; and

Whereas this is a week to encourage all individuals within the Two-Spirted, Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender, Queer, Questioning, Intersex and Asexual communities and their allies supporters to celebrate who they are; and

Whereas it is a time to respect and celebrate the diverse members within our community of communities and acknowledge the contributions they make; and

Whereas Kings County is in support of the Action Plan for Ending Racism and Discrimination and continues to work on providing a supportive welcoming environment to all people; and THEREFORE, I, Mayor Peter Muttart, on behalf of members of Kings County Council, do hereby proclaim July 16th to July 26th, 2020 as Pride Week in the Municipality of the County of Kings.

Dated at this 16th day of July in the year 2020.

NOVA SCOTIA