8.3.4 Additional Requirements

8.3.4.1 Residential Uses

New residential uses are permitted between two dwellings in existence on the date of adoption of this By-law that are no more than 300 feet apart or between a dwelling in existence on the date of adoption of this By-law and a public road that are no more than 300 feet apart, in accordance with policy 3.4.12(d) of the Municipal Planning Strategy. For clarity, the distance shall be measured at the required front setback on a perpendicular line extending from the road to the nearest applicable point to the adjacent dwelling or public road. Additional requirements noted below shall also apply.

- (a) Existing dwellings are required to have been in existence on the date of adoption of this By-law and may include farm dwellings but shall exclude farm tenements.

- (b) Lots may be either newly created or in existence on the date of adoption of this By-law.
- (c) Notwithstanding (b) above, residential uses may be located on lots described in subsection 14.2.5 related to existing undersized lots, subject to the separation distance requirements of this subsection.

8.3.4.2 Site Plan Approval

Residential uses permitted under section 8.3.4.1, and residential uses replacing an existing residential use in a substantially different location, shall be subject to site plan approval in accordance with the criteria below and in accordance with policy 3.4.13 of the Municipal Planning Strategy. (Amended October 1, 2024, File P21-01)

- (a) Residential uses shall locate as close to the front lot line as possible. The dwelling and all accessory buildings shall be within 150 feet of the front lot line, measured from the rear wall of the dwelling or accessory building, unless restricted by topography or it is shown that the impact on agricultural lands is greater than if the dwelling and accessory buildings were located elsewhere.
- (b) Written acknowledgement by the property owner that the dwelling is located in an agricultural area.
- (c) The addition of a second residential unit to a one unit dwelling shall not be subject to site plan approval. (Added for clarity, October 1, 2024, File P21-01)

8.3.4.3 Farm Dwellings, Farm Tenements and Bunkhouses

Farm dwellings, farm tenements and bunkhouses shall be permitted on a farm property subject to the criteria below.

- (a) The farm dwelling, farm tenement or bunkhouse shall be accessory to a farming business and shall not be the first main farm building on the lot. For clarity, more than one farm tenement is permitted per lot provided all requirements of this By-law are met. (Amended October 1, 2024, File P21-01)
- (b) The property owner shall demonstrate that the farm dwelling, farm tenement or bunkhouse is part of a farming business operating on the farm property where it is located.
- (c) At the time of application for a new farm dwelling, farm tenement or bunkhouse, the gross revenue of the property owner from the farming business exceeded the income from all other sources for the preceding tax year.

8.3.4.4 Reuse of Existing Buildings

Notwithstanding 8.3.4.1, an existing community facility or place of worship may be converted to a one or two unit dwelling.

8.3.4.5 Topsoil Removal

Topsoil removal shall be prohibited except for removal that is incidental to a permitted use and excavation associated with the construction of buildings and infrastructure, in accordance with policy 3.4.10 of the Municipal Planning Strategy.

8.3.5 Uses Considered by Development Agreement

Pursuant to the Municipal Planning Strategy, the uses noted below may be considered by Development Agreement within the Agricultural (A1) Zone:
